

At Pavis, we aim to offer our guests modern food with local touches, and at times, inspiration from other parts of the world. Natural ingredients, and natural flavors are key words in our food philosophy. It is not always the most complicated dishes that are the best, rather, the simplest can be just as good. We follow seasonal availability as much as possible and shape a varied menu. Even if you are not hungry, you are always welcome at Pavis. Our wish is that Pavis will become a living room for people in the Jakobstad region. A place where one can visit and always feel at home.
