

Nanoq

Outside of Jakobstad lies Finland's first Arctic museum, Nanoq, which offers visitors a chance to get to know Arctic peoples, cultures, and customs.

On the museum grounds interesting buildings from the Arctic have been recreated, such as a turf house from northern Greenland, Henry Rudi's trappers cabin, a gold panner's camp, and the world's most northerly church. There is also a new exhibit on display every summer.

Nanoq

Arctic Museum Nanoq

68620 Jakobstad

Finland

nanoq.museum@gmail.com

<http://www.nanoq.fi/en-GB>

Nanoq

Nanoq

Arctic Museum Nanoq

68620 Jakobstad

Finland

nanoq.museum@gmail.com

<http://www.nanoq.fi/en-GB>